भारतीय हैंडलूम और हस्तशिल्प को समर्पित ऐतिहासिक फैशन कार्यक्रम का आयोजन, जानें उद्देश्य

punjabkesari.in Tuesday, May 06, 2025 - 05:09 PM (IST)

नई दिल्ली/टीम डिजिटल। वर्ल्ड डिज़ाइनिंग फोरम, जो देशभर के 20,000 से अधिक फैशन डिज़ाइनर्स का सबसे बड़ा मंच है, ने लवली प्रोफेशनल यूनिवर्सिटी (LPU) में एक ऐतिहासिक फैशन कार्यक्रम का आयोजन किया। यह आयोजन भारतीय हैंडलूम और हस्तशिल्प की समृद्ध विरासत को समर्पित था और इसमें चेयरपर्सन डॉ. रश्मि मित्तल तथा प्रो वाइस चांसलर श्री सुशील मोदी की गरिमामयी उपस्थिति रही।

कार्यक्रम में विभिन्न डिज़ाइनर्स ने परंपरागत बुनाई, कढ़ाई और भारतीय वस्त्र कला से प्रेरित डिज़ाइनों की प्रस्तुति दी, जिन्हें आधुनिक फैशन की सोच के साथ जोड़ा गया था। यह आयोजन वर्ल्ड डिज़ाइनिंग फोरम की उन प्रमुख पहलों का हिस्सा था जो "इंडियन कुट्योर लीग" और हैंडलूम डिज़ाइनर ऐप जैसे डिजिटल माध्यमों के ज़रिए ग्रामीण कारीगरों को वैश्विक बाज़ारों से जोड़ने का कार्य कर रही हैं।

WDF के संस्थापक और सीईओ अंकुश अनामी ने कहा, "भारतीय हैंडलूम हमारी विरासत ही नहीं, हमारा भविष्य भी है। लवली प्रोफेशनल यूनिवर्सिटी के साथ यह साझेदारी शिक्षा, डिज़ाइन और संस्कृति को एक मंच पर लाने की दिशा में एक प्रेरणादायक कदम है।"

कार्यक्रम के अंतर्गत "हाई फैशन में हैंडलूम" विषय पर एक विचार-विमर्श सत्र भी आयोजित किया गया, जिसमें युवा डिज़ाइनर्स और फैकल्टी ने पारंपरिक शिल्प को समकालीन फैशन के साथ कैसे जोड़ा जा सकता है, इस पर संवाद किया।

आगरा: ताज महोत्सव के मुख्य मंच पर आयोजित वर्ल्ड डिज़ाइनिंग फोरम (WDF) के 'धरोहर' फैशन शो में भारतीय संस्कृति और पारंपरिक परिधानों की भव्यता देखने को मिली. इस कार्यक्रम में भारत के विभिन्न राज्यों के पारंपरिक वस्त्रों को रैंप पर प्रदर्शित किया गया, जहां ओडिशा की पटचित्रा कला, आंध्र प्रदेश की पोंधुरी कॉटन धोती, महाराष्ट्र की पैठनी साड़ी, राजस्थान की सांगानेरी ब्लॉक प्रिंटिंग, पश्चिम बंगाल की लाल-सफेद साड़ी और पंजाब के शरारा जैसे परिधान खास आकर्षण का केंद्र रहे. भारतीय वस्त्रों की समृद्ध परंपरा को आधुनिक फैशन के साथ जोड़ते हुए इस शो ने पारंपरिक परिधानों की सुंदरता को एक नए अंदाज में प्रस्तुत किया.

केंद्रीय मंत्री ने किया शुभारंभ

कार्यक्रम का शुभारंभ केंद्रीय मंत्री एस. पी. सिंह बघेल द्वारा दीप प्रज्ज्वलन के साथ हुआ. इस अवसर पर वर्ल्ड डिज़ाइनिंग फोरम के निदेशक अंकुश अनामी ने कहा कि यह मंच भारतीय पारंपरिक कला और वस्त्रों को समकालीन डिज़ाइन के साथ जोड़कर उन्हें एक नई पहचान देने का प्रयास कर रहा है. उन्होंने कहा कि भारतीय पारंपरिक वस्त्र न केवल देश की सांस्कृतिक धरोहर हैं, बल्कि वैश्विक स्तर पर भी अपनी अलग पहचान बना रहे हैं.

50 से अधिक डिज़ाइनर्स और मॉडलों ने बिखेरा जलवा

फैशन शो में 50 से अधिक प्रसिद्ध डिज़ाइनरों और मॉडलों ने भाग लिया, जिन्होंने अपने शानदार प्रदर्शन से भारतीय वस्त्र उद्योग की भव्यता को दर्शकों के सामने प्रस्तुत किया. शो में ओडिशा की पटचित्रा कला और सम्बलपुरी बुनाई की झलक ने दर्शकों को अपनी समृद्ध विरासत से रूबरू कराया. आंध्र प्रदेश की 1920 के दशक की मंगलगिरी विंटेज कॉटन साड़ी और पोंधुरी कॉटन धोती ने पारंपरिक भारतीय फैशन को नए अंदाज में पेश किया, जबकि कश्मीर की पश्मीना शॉल और सोज़नी कढ़ाई की बारीकी ने लोगों का मन मोह लिया.

भारतीय फैशन उद्योग को मजबूत करने और उत्तर भारत और दक्षिण भारत के डिज़ाइनर्स के बीच का अंतर कम करने के लिए वर्ल्ड डिज़ाइनिंग फोरम (WDF) ने एक नई पहल की घोषणा की है। WDF के सीईओ अंकुश अनामी ने हाल ही में तमिलनाडु के दौरे के दौरान यह महसूस किया कि दक्षिण भारतीय फैशन डिज़ाइनर्स को भाषा की समस्या और एक उचित व्यापारिक चैनल की कमी के कारण उत्तर भारतीय ग्राहकों तक पहुँचने में कठिनाई होती है। इस अंतर को समाप्त करने और एक राष्ट्रीय स्तर का व्यापारिक मंच प्रदान करने के लिए, इस वर्ष National Handloom Day 2025 का आयोजन चेन्नई और गोवा में ग्रेंड लेवल पर किया जाएगा।

The National Designer Awards 2024, organized by the World Designing Forum, highlighted India's handloom heritage in Goa. The event featured 300 designers presenting textiles such as Pashmina from Kashmir and Kanjeevaram silk from Tamil Nadu. Over 100 international guests, including fashion experts, participated in the event.

The focus was on adapting handloom for modern fashion while preserving traditional techniques.

Panel discussions covered topics like global supply chains, e-commerce for artisans, and handloom's role in rural economic development.

The Forum, with its network of 25,000 designers, aims to modernize and promote Indian handloom. International interest in the sector is growing, contributing to India's position in sustainable and artisanal fashion.

Fashion is more than just clothing—it's a story, a craft, and a celebration of heritage. At the heart of this global phenomenon lies Indian handloom, a centuries-old tradition now being reimagined for the modern world. The National Designer Awards 2024, hosted by the World Designing Forum in the scenic locale of Goa, transformed the event into a spectacular ode to India's textile legacy. From the luxurious Pashmina shawls of Kashmir to the vibrant Kanjeevaram silks of Tamil Nadu, the seventh edition of this grand celebration showcased the unmatched richness of Indian handloom, blending tradition with contemporary allure.

The event brought together 300 designers from across the country, each representing the vibrant diversity of India's textiles. Hosted by the charismatic Ankit Batla, the gathering also welcomed over 100 international guests, including fashion experts and cultural enthusiasts, who marveled at the intricate craftsmanship on display. These designers unveiled collections that seamlessly integrated age-old weaving techniques with global fashion trends, demonstrating that handloom is not only timeless but also innovative and versatile.

National Designer Awards 2024

नई दिल्ली: गोवा में आयोजित नेशनल रिजाइनिंग अवार्ड्स 2024 भारतीय हैठतूम की समृद्ध विरासत और आधुनिक रिजाइनिंग का संगम साबित हुआ. वर्ल्ड रिजाइनिंग फोरम द्वारा आयोजित इस कार्यक्रम में 300 रिजाइनिंगर्स ने हिस्सा लिया, जो भारत के विभिन्न राज्यों के पारंपरिक वस्तुओं को लेकर आए थे. 100 से अधिक विदेशी मेहमानों की उपस्थिति ने इस कार्यक्रम को और भी खास बना दिया. उन्होंने भारतीय हैठतूम की कला को सराहा और इसे वैश्विक मंच पर ले जाने की संभावनाओं पर चर्चा की.

पैनल डिस्कशन में, लिज़ाइनर्स ने कारीगरों के लिए नए बाज़ार बनाने, निर्यात बढ़ाने, और हैठलूम को सतत और पर्यावरण-अनुकूल उत्पाद के रूप में स्थापित करने पर जोर दिया। वर्ल्ड लिज़ाइनिंग फोरम, जो 25,000 लिज़ाइनर्स का प्रतिनिधित्व करता है, ने पिछले सात वर्षों में इस दिशा में कई उल्लेखनीय प्रयास किए हैं। इस आयोजन से भारतीय अर्थव्यवस्था को बड़ा लाभ हुआ है। हैठलूम उत्पादों की मांग बढ़ने से कारीगरों को रोजगार मिला है और ग्रामीण विकास को बढ़ावा मिला है।

लिज़ाइनर्स ने 2025 के लिए नए विचार और सुझाव दिए, जिनमें तकनीकी सहायता और वैश्विक जागरूकता पैदा करने पर जोर दिया गया। नेशनल लिज़ाइनर अवार्ड्स 2024 ने यह साबित कर दिया कि भारतीय हैटलूम न केवल संस्कृति का प्रतीक है, बल्कि वैश्विक फैशन का भविष्य भी है।

Handloom Industry Can Help India Achieve $5 Trillion GDP Mark: Experts

Experts shared that the industry can play a crucial role helping India scale the $5 trillion GDP mark.

Written By Zee Media Bureau | Last Updated: Aug 09, 2024, 07:31 PM IST | Source: Bureau

On August 7, 2024, India marked the 10th National Handloom Day, a celebration dedicated to honoring the handloom weavers and workers who sustain the nation's rich textile heritage. The handloom sector, which employs around 3.5 million people either directly or indirectly, is a significant contributor to the Indian economy, second only to agriculture. With India's expanding population and export opportunities, the handloom industry has the potential to evolve into 250 billion dollar industry by 2030. Experts shared that the industry can play a crucial role helping India scale the $5 trillion GDP mark.

The World Designing Forum, one of the world's largest global fashion community, has announced the setting up of India's first Handloom Cluster and Apparel Designing hub in Agra. This initiative is poised to redefine the landscape of fashion by showcasing designer garments made from handlooms across India, particularly targeting the influx of foreign tourists visiting Agra each year, the Forum said in a statement.

The hub, located at the famous "I Love Agra Selfie Point," is a collaborative effort between RVA and the World Designing Forum. The hub is set up with natural threads and handlooms. Recently, the Agra Development Authority announced organisation of weekly programs at this point, leading to the construction of a temporary apparel hub, with RVA winning the contract.

Meanwhile, the World Designing Forum said that a World Couture League has been formed to promote handloom on an international scale. It will organize annual competitions in handloom designing among 20 Indian states. The league includes notable figures in the country such as industrialist Puran Dawar, Dr. Ranjana Bansal, and Shekhar Dikshit. Member of the National Core Committee, Shekhar Dikshit, disclosed plans for similar handloom hubs in Jaipur, Goa, and Kanyakumari, following the success of the initiative in Agra.

The event highlighted the significant growth of the handloom sector in India.

The celebration of National Handloom Day 2024, organized by the World Designing Forum, marked a significant milestone in showcasing India's rich textile heritage. Bringing together hundreds of designers from Kashmir to Kanyakumari, the event in Agra was a testament to the extraordinary blend of craftsmanship and design that defines Indian handloom. The display featured an array of traditional fabrics such as Ikkat, Maheshwari, Patola, Chanderi, Kalamkari, Banarasi, Kota Doria, Mangalagiri Silk, Kanjivaram, Paithani, Khadi, Kutch's Kala Cotton, and Tasar, reflecting the diversity of India's handloom traditions.

Handloom and Economic Growth

The event highlighted the significant growth of the handloom sector in India, driven by initiatives like those led by Ritu Maheshwari. Over the past few years, the handloom industry has seen a resurgence, with increasing demand for handmade, sustainable fabrics both domestically and internationally. This program exemplified how traditional crafts can be integrated into modern design, attracting a broader audience and creating new market opportunities.

Ritu Maheshwari was a special guest at the event. She emphasised on popularizing handlooms among the youth and emerging designers is particularly crucial for sustaining this growth. By fostering innovation and creativity within the sector, her initiatives have helped to modernize the industry while maintaining its traditional roots. This has not only preserved the cultural heritage but has also contributed to economic growth by creating new jobs and empowering artisans and weavers to become self-reliant.

Economically, the handloom sector plays a vital role in India's rural economy. Programs like these not only bring visibility to the artisans but also open up new avenues for export, enhancing the sector's contribution to the country's GDP. With the growing global demand for ethically produced and sustainable fashion, Indian handloom is poised to become a significant player on the international stage.

Ritu Maheshwari's vision for the handloom industry is clear: to blend tradition with modernity, to honor the past while embracing the future. Her commitment to this cause ensures that the Indian handloom industry will continue to thrive, contributing not only to cultural preservation but also to the economic growth of the nation.

On the outside, the fashion design industry is all about elegance and glamour. But looking in from the inside, it's much like any other industry: full of major players, little players, academics, teachers, and those looking to break in. The act of assembling them into an organisation is daunting in and of itself. The World Design Forum (WDF) has accomplished the remarkable feat of establishing an organisation that brings together and fosters collaboration among all of these areas.

In 2017, Ankush Anami established the World Designing Forum. This one-of-a-kind forum in India's fashion industry was born from the need to

Synopsis

The World Designing Forum announces India's inaugural Handloom Cluster and Apparel Designing hub in Agra, targeting fashion innovation and tourism. Situated at the "I Love Agra Selfie Point," the park showcases handloom creations, a joint venture of RVA and the Forum. Plans include a World Couture League promoting handloom internationally and expanding similar parks to Jaipur, Goa, and Kanyakumari. CEO Ankush Anami aims to blend culture and design for tourists' enrichment.

The World Designing Forum, one of the world's largest global fashion community, has announced the setting up of India's first Handloom Cluster and Apparel Designing hub in Agra. This initiative is poised to redefine the landscape of fashion by showcasing designer garments made from handlooms across India, particularly targeting the influx of foreign tourists visiting Agra each year, the Forum said in a statement.

The hub, located at the famous "I Love Agra Selfie Point," is a collaborative effort between RVA and the World Designing Forum. The hub is set up with natural threads and handlooms. Recently, the Agra Development Authority announced organisation of weekly programs at this point, leading to the construction of a temporary apparel hub, with RVA winning the contract.

Meanwhile, the World Designing Forum said that a World Couture League has been formed to promote handloom on an international scale. It will organize annual competitions in handloom designing among 20 Indian states. The league includes notable figures in the country such as industrialist Puran Dawar, Dr. Ranjana Bansal, and Shekhar Dikshit. Member of the National Core Committee, Shekhar Dikshit, disclosed plans for similar handloom hubs in Jaipur, Goa, and Kanyakumari, following the success of the initiative in Agra.

World Designing Forum embraces 'Vocal for Local' Vision by National Designer Awards 2023

India Today Education Desk

New Delhi, UPDATED: Nov 24, 2023 16:21 IST

The World Designing Forum, celebrated in the fashion and design realm, proudly unveils the sixth edition of the National Designer Awards for 2023. This year, aligning with Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visionary initiative "Vocal for Local," the Forum exhibits a dedicated commitment to spotlighting and advancing Indian handloom on a global stage.

Renowned for fostering creativity and innovation, the National Designer Awards, orchestrated by the World Designing Forum, stand as a pioneering force in the fashion world. Now, the Forum shoulders the responsibility of fortifying the "Vocal for Local" vision, echoing a sense of duty and purpose.

REVOLUTIONISING FASHION WITH INDIAN HANDLOOM

The National Designer Awards 2023 emerges as a transformative force, inspiring over 25,000 fashion designers worldwide to actively integrate Indian handloom into their designs.

As a platform that honours and incentivises excellence in fashion design, the Forum seeks to motivate designers to contribute to the resurgence and preservation of India's opulent textile heritage.

CELEBRATING INDIAN HANDLOOM DIVERSITY

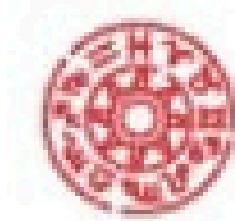

At the core of the National Designer Awards lies the celebration of Indian handloom's diversity and craftsmanship. Through collaborations, initiatives, and exhibitions, the Forum encourages designers to infuse traditional Indian handloom fabrics—such as Maheshwari, Chanderi, and Bagh Prints—into their contemporary creations.

The Indian fashion industry is a buzz with anticipation as the World Designing Forum gears up to host the World Designer Conclave 2023, a historic event that will bring together India's top 200 fashion designers for a noble cause.

This unprecedented gathering of creative minds will be joined by renowned celebrity faces such as Rina Dhaka, Ruma Devi, Nivedita Ba Tyagi, Parul Chawla, Shanthi Priya, Sabyasachi Satpathy, and miss universe Nehal Chudasama, among others, to support Indian hand fabric and artisans.

ADVERTISEMENT

What makes this event truly remarkable is that it will be the first time in Indian history that such a large community of fashion designer gathered under the umbrella of the World Designing Forum. The forum, known for its commitment to promoting creativity, innovation and sustainability in the fashion industry, has taken a bold step to bring together the best and brightest minds in Indian fashion for a noble cause.

The World Designer Conclave 2023 aims to create history by uniting India's top fashion designers and celebrity faces in support of handmade fabric and artisans. With a focus on promoting traditional craftsmanship, sustainable fashion, and the use of indigenous textiles, the conclave seeks to raise awareness about the rich cultural heritage of India and the need to preserve and promote it.

The event will provide a unique platform for fashion designers to showcase their talent and creativity while also highlighting the importance of handmade fabric and artisans in the fashion industry. Through panel discussions, workshops, and interactive sessions, the conclave will facilitate meaningful conversations and collaborations among designers, artisans, and other stakeholders to explore ways to promote sustainable fashion and support traditional craft communities.

Ankush Anami extended his heartfelt congratulations to the WDF members who played key roles in organizing the successful event.

New Delhi (India), July 5: The World Designing Forum's Indian Cultural Fest came to a spectacular end yesterday, after a mesmerizing three-day grand Indian handloom fashion show. The event, which took place from 30th June to 3rd July 2023, was a celebration of India's rich cultural heritage and showcased the diversity and tradition of Indian handloom.

The fashion show, organized by the World Designing Forum (WDF), featured renowned designers, talented weavers, and artisans from across the country. The event provided a platform for these artisans to exhibit their exquisite craftsmanship and unique designs, highlighting the beauty of Indian handloom textiles.

CEO Ankush Anami, a passionate advocate for preserving

India's rich handicraft culture, emphasized the importance of designers coming forward to save this valuable heritage. In a statement, Ankush Anami urged designers to play an active role in promoting and preserving India's handicraft traditions, which are deeply rooted in the country's history.

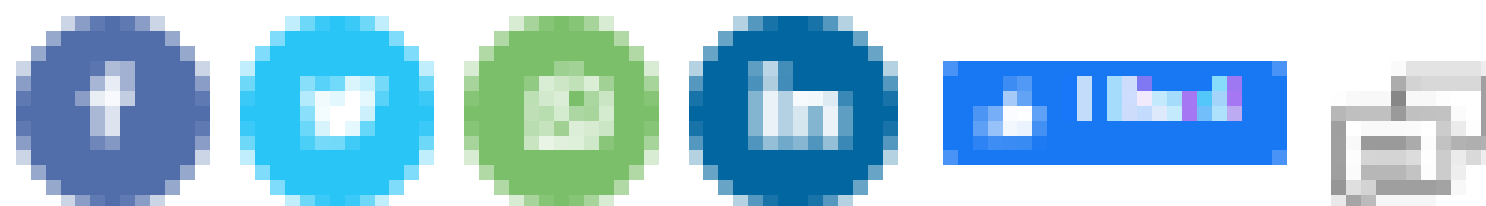

During the closing ceremony, Ankush Anami took the opportunity to extend his heartfelt congratulations to the WDF members who played key roles in organizing the successful event. Srishti Kulshrestha, Pushpendra, Harpreet, and Nisha were praised for their dedication and hard work in bringing together this grand celebration of Indian culture.

As a gesture of appreciation for their contributions to the fashion industry, WDF felicitated 200 talented designers and weavers from various regions of India. These individuals were recognized for their outstanding creativity and commitment to promoting traditional handloom textiles. The felicitation ceremony served as a reminder of the importance of supporting and encouraging the craftsmen who continue to preserve and enhance India's artistic heritage.
